

Local businessman Jeffrey Adair adjusts the robe he wears as a show girl in the opening act of "La Cage aux Folles" at the San Mateo Performing Arts Center.

Warming up with fellow actors in a practice studio in Burlingame, Jeffrey Adair gets in shape for his return to show business. Mr. Adair worked as a dancer in Las Vegas for several years before opening his floral business 20 years ago.

Jeffrey Adair, successful businessman and longtime director of the Menlo School benefit, is back in show business. He's appearing in the Broadway By the Bay production of "La Cage Aux Folles" Sept. 16 to Oct. 3 at the San Mateo Performing Arts Center.

Mr. Adair was a professional dancer/singer before he opened J Floral Art 20 years ago. Now he's kicking up his heels (literally) with a new generation. He plays the part of Mercedes, one of the "Cagelles" (chorus girls) in "La Cage Aux Folles," which has been delighting audiences since it opened in 1983. The musical is based on a French play and subsequent film by the same name; later, an American film based on the story was made: "The Birdcage," starring Robin Williams and Nathan Lane.

Mercedes is one of 10 "Cagelle" girls in the story of Albin and Georges, two middle-aged gay lovers who run a transvestite nightclub in St. Tropez. The plot revolves primarily around the complications that develop when their son announces he is getting married to a woman — not only a woman, but the daughter of a local morals crusader.

Although Mr. Adair is a pro in show business, playing Mercedes is a first for him. He's never done drag before, and will appear in multiple wigs and full makeup, including false eyelashes.

The worst part of playing Mercedes, he says, is wearing high heels. After doing the can-can and tap dancing in high heels, he has only sympathy for his women friends.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC MEETING AND
NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING
CITY OF MENLO PARK PLANNING COMMISSION
MEETING OF SEPTEMBER 20, 2010

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Planning Commission of the City of Menlo Park, California, is scheduled to review the following items:

PUBLIC HEARING ITEMS

Use Permit/Christopher Tripoli/332 Marmona Drive: Request for a use permit to demolish an existing single-story, single-family residence and construct a new two-story, single-family residence on a substandard lot with regard to lot width, depth, and area in the R-1-U (Single-Family Urban) zoning district. As part of the proposed development, a 21-inch heritage camphor in fair condition in the public right-of-way at the front of the property would be removed.

Use Permit/Daniel Spiegel/580 Cotton Street: Request for a use permit to demolish an existing single-story, single-family residence and construct a new single-family residence that is predominantly single-story with a three-story portion in the front left corner of the proposed structure on a substandard lot with regard to lot width in the R-E (Residential Estate) zoning district. The construction of the proposed residence would require the removal of two heritage size trees, a 24.2-inch cedar in fair condition and a 17.9-inch diameter maple in poor condition.

Use Permit/Brenda Pai/470 Santa Rita Avenue: Request for a use permit for interior and exterior modifications and an addition to the front right-side of the existing nonconforming, single-story, single-family residence located in the R-1-S (Single-Family Suburban) zoning district. The proposed modifications would exceed 75 percent of the replacement value of the existing structure in a 12-month period.

PUBLIC MEETING ITEM

Architectural Control, Heritage Tree Removals, and General Plan Conformance/City of Menlo Park/501 Laurel Street: Proposal to demolish the existing 17,400-square-foot gymnasium and gymnastics building and construct a new approximately 19,400-square-foot gymnastics facility at the location of the existing gymnasium and gymnastics building and associated site improvements located at the Civic Center Complex in the P-F (Public Facilities) zoning district. As a result of this proposal, five heritage trees would be removed. The trees proposed for removal include a 36-inch Monterey pine in fair condition, a 32-inch Monterey pine in good condition, a 23-inch Monterey pine in fair condition, and two 24-inch Monterey pines in fair condition. The Planning Commission will make a recommendation to the City Council on the architectural control for the proposed gymnastics center design, the five heritage tree removals, and consider whether the proposed capital improvement project is consistent with the General Plan.

NOTICE IS HEREBY FURTHER GIVEN that said Planning Commission will hold a public hearing on public hearing items in the Council Chambers of the City of Menlo Park, located at 701 Laurel Street, Menlo Park, on Monday, September 20, 2010, 7:00 p.m. or as near as possible thereafter, at which time and place interested persons may appear and be heard thereon. If you challenge this item in court, you may be limited to raising only those issues you or someone else raised at the public hearing described in this notice, or in written correspondence delivered to the City of Menlo Park at, or prior to, the public hearing.

The project file may be viewed by the public on weekdays between the hours of 7:30 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday and 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on Friday, with alternate Fridays closed, at the Department of Community Development, 701 Laurel Street, Menlo Park. Please call the Planning Division if there are any questions and/or for complete agenda information (650) 330-6702.

Si usted necesita más información sobre este proyecto, por favor llame al 650-330-6702, y pregunte por un asistente que hable español.

At age 52, he admits it takes stamina to keep up with the other "kids" in the chorus, some a generation younger. He worked with a trainer and lost 25 pounds to get in shape for the role.

He admits being nervous at the auditions and has been "pleasantly surprised" that he has been able to keep up the pace. The cast is rehearsing three or four hours every day in preparation for the Sept. 16 opening.

"I always wanted to do this show," he says — and he was ready when the opportunity came.

A successful business

It's been 20 years since he opened J Floral Art in a little building on the El Camino Real in Menlo Park. The store moved to Santa Cruz Avenue for 10 years before relocating to 3489 Edison Way in Redwood City six years ago.

"It was the best thing we ever did. The rent on Santa Cruz Avenue was killing us," he says. "We never lost a customer," he adds.

J Floral Art is noted for its upscale floral arrangements. The firm does a brisk business in weddings, parties and event planning. It has many private and business clients. Many of his loyal customers come from his 22-year association with the annual Menlo School benefit.

Jeffrey Adair grew up in Redwood City and graduated from Sequoia High School. He studied dance for years and enrolled in the theatre arts program at San Jose State. When he was 20, he went to work as a dancer at the old MGM Grand in Las Vegas. Later he moved to the Lido de Paris show in Vegas for seven years and 4,000 performances.

His dancing days also included two years in Munich, Germany, and working with the late Steve Silver in his Las Vegas production of "Beach Blanket Babylon."

"Everybody remembers me as the witch doctor," he says with a laugh.

Returning to the Bay Area, he went into the floral business with Janet Larson, whom he knew through working together on the Menlo School benefit. He had been employed in flower shops between stints as a dancer. Ms. Larson is no longer associated with J Floral Art.

His business partner is also his life partner, Craig Kozlowski. They have been together for 20 years and were married June 17, 2008, on the first day it was legal for same-sex marriage in California. They were married by San Mateo County Supervisor Rich Gordon in his office in Redwood City.

Mr. Adair is working for Mr. Gordon's election campaign for the 21st Assembly District. He and Mr. Kozlowski have been active on LGBT (Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender) issues for the last five or six years.

"We have been fortunate and decided it was time to give back," he says. He has also served on the national board of the Human Rights Campaign.

Right now, his energy is directed toward "La Cage Aux Folles" and opening night. Many of his pals from back East, Las Vegas, and Los Angeles, as well as the Peninsula, will be on hand to cheer him in his "girly girl" debut. "They have to see it to believe it," he says with a laugh. ▀

Woodside Vaulters win at world festival

This information was submitted by Carrie Wick, of Woodside Vaulters.

The Woodside Vaulters A Team captured the championship in the "Prize of Sparkasse" equestrian vaulting competition at the World Equestrian Festival in Aachen, Germany, this summer. The Woodside team earned top marks for its freestyle routine performed to a medley of music from "The Lion King."

The Woodside team members are Gabe Aniello, 19, from Burlingame; Alyssa Bonora, 16, Portola Valley; Tessa Divita, 12, Redwood City; Yvonne Greenen, 15, Los Altos; Sid-dartha Kreaden, 12, Sunnyvale; Samantha Smith, 24, Saratoga; and Katharine Wick, 17, Hillsborough.

The team is coached by Isabelle Parker, and co-coached by Samantha Smith. Krista Mack is the equestrian trainer.

At the Aachen competition, the Woodside team vaulted on "Forrest Cump," a chestnut Hanoverian trained by Agnes Foerst of the Lingen Riding Club, Lingen, Germany, where the team practiced in the week leading up to the competition.

"I am extremely pleased with the team's performance in their international debut at this prestigious invitation-only event," said Coach Parker. "This group has worked hard and bonded in an exceptional way, which really showed in their performances in Aachen. They have made their mark in the international arena representing the USA."

In individual competition, Woodside Vaulters' Ali Divita, 21, from Redwood City, placed 11th overall in the women's group, and Patrick Stevens, age 18, from Martinez, finished 13th among the men.

Equestrian vaulting combines elements of gymnastics and dance on the back of a cantering horse. Vaulters perform compulsory moves and freestyle routines choreographed to music. The athletes are judged on form, per-

Locals win titles at Pony Club event

By Hannah Totte

Special to The Almanac

The Horse Park in Woodside played host to the U.S. Pony Club's Championships West competition from Aug. 6 to 15, and local youth were among the winners.

While representing the Middle California Region of the U.S. Pony Club, locals won the "Games" competition, a speed and agility event, on Aug. 10. The "Punk Ponies" team members are Claire Kendall, Charlie Campbell, and Megan Luff of Menlo Park; Samara Phillips of Portola Valley; and captain Anna Waldern, of Los Altos Hills, all of whom have been training together for the past 18 months in preparation for this event, said Martha Klinger, district commissioner of the Portola Valley Pony Club.

Their team is now eligible to compete with the top four junior "Games" teams in the country during the 2011 Prince Philip Cup in Kentucky next spring, Ms. Klinger said.

Claire and Anna also came in first during the "Quiz" competition for testing well on various aspects of horse care, including horse nutrition, conformation, and veterinary aid.

Some 250 members of the U.S. Pony Club competed at the Horse Park in such events as show jumping, dressage, games, quiz, polocrosse, and the tetrathlon, a four-part sport made up of a cross-country run, a 200-meter swim, an air-pistol shooting event, and a stadium jumping course event.

National tetrathlon teams from the United Kingdom, Canada, Ireland and Australia also participated.

Pony Club members range in age from 4 to 25. ■

Sequoia high school district salutes teachers, staff

By Hannah Totte
Special to the Almanac

As the 2010-2011 school year shifts into gear, the Sequoia Union High School District has announced its annual awards to top teachers, staff and parent volunteers.

Rachel Andres, a math teacher at Menlo-Atherton High School, was honored as Certificated Employee of the Year, in part due to her work as coordinator of a program that helps prepare students to achieve four-year college eligibility. Many of the students are the first in their families to go to college.

Given a Classified Employee of the Year award was Eddy Marroquin, a campus aide at Woodside High School who was recognized for his commitment to maintaining a safe campus environment and for his "work ethic, positive attitude and grace under pressure," the district said.

Tina Basler, a parent-volunteer at Woodside High, was named a Volunteer of the Year for her endeavors to enhance communication at the school.

Employees who reach milestone anniversaries in the 2010 school

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF:
CHARLES W. FREUDENTHAL aka CHUCK FREUDENTHAL
Case No.: 120270

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of CHARLES W. FREUDENTHAL, aka CHUCK FREUDENTHAL.

A Petition for Probate has been filed by MICHELE A. CLEMONS in the Superior Court of California, County of SAN MATEO.

The Petition for Probate requests that MICHELE A. CLEMONS be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

The petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held on September 24, 2010 at 9:00 a.m. in Dept.: 28 of the Superior Court of California, County of San Mateo, located at 400 County Center, Redwood City, CA 94063.

If you object to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney. If you are a creditor or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within four months from the date of first issuance of letters as provided in Probate Code section 9100. The time for filing claims will not expire before four months from the hearing date noticed above.

You may examine the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

The spacious, light-filled living room and dining room are perfectly appointed for entertaining. The kitchen is expanded by a butler's pantry and generous breakfast area. A large family room/third bedroom occupies the lower level and opens onto a sunny patio screened by heritage oaks. Attached two-car garage.

- Four bedrooms, four full- and two half-baths (approximately 4,000 sq. ft.)
- Attached apartment with kitchen and laundry
- Living room, dining room, breakfast area and kitchen
- Approximately 1.32 acres allow for possible expansion of the home
- Excellent Las Lomas schools

OFFERED AT $2,975,000
