Audiences will recognize Maria and Captain von Trapp in Woodside Community Theatre's upcoming production of "The Sound of Music" because the actors have played the leading roles in two of the company's past shows.

In the October run of the Rodgers & Hammerstein musical, Kerie Darner will once again be paired with Damian Marhefka after starring together in WCT's "The Music Man" and "Guys and Dolls."

They are part of "a particularly talented cast" of 38, says director Doug Brook, who helped pick them after watching 135 auditions. This show marks his directorial debut with the company. He recently directed South Bay Musical Theatre's "Finian's Rainbow."

He says he is sticking "to the original Broadway script, which doesn't get done very often." He expects people to notice the differences such as "three songs are in there that are not in the film" version of "The Sound of Music."

The musical is based on Maria von Trapp's memoir about the Trapp Family Singers, where a postulant becomes a governess for a widowed naval captain with seven children. The couple marries and when the Nazis invade Austria in the late 1930s the family flees the country.

The only Woodside resident acting in the show is Jenna Lange, who plays one of the daughters, Brigitta. Many of the other cast and crew members, however, have Woodside connections, such as Matt Waters. The Woodside School math teacher is playing Rolf.

Darlene and Darrell Batchelder used to live in Woodside. She is an alum of Woodside School and both are former parents there. She's the Mother Abbess and he's a member of the men's ensemble, appearing in his eleventh WCT show.

Tickets cost $25 for general admission, $22 for seniors (62 and up) and $15 for students (18 and younger). behind the scenes as well, he as technical director and set designer, and she as costume designer. Akio's brother, Steve, also helped build sets back when their children appeared together in the eighth-grade operetta version of "The Sound of Music" years ago. He says these sets are "fresh and new and better" to fill the stage at Woodside High School Performing Arts Center.

The co-producers include two more former Woodside School parents, Donna Losey and Mark Bowles, and Claudia McCarley who went to Woodside High and plays the role of Sister Berthe.

There are four married couples in the cast, including the leading actress who met her husband, Nate Moss, in a WCT show a few years back. This time he's performing as Herr Zeller.

Torrey Rothstein of Portola Valley is playing Franz, and his wife, Fiona Ryan, is a nun. This is their first musical ever, and she says they are very grateful her sister offered to baby-sit their 8-month-old to free up their evenings for rehearsals.

US ROUTE 101/WILLOW ROAD INTERCHANGE PROJECT

Notice of Public Environmental Scoping Meetings

Wednesday, October 17, 2012 from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

Menlo Park Senior Center, 110 Terminal Avenue, Menlo Park, CA; and

Wednesday, October 24, 2012 from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

Purpose: The California Department of Transportation (Caltrans), as owner and operator of US Route 101 and Lead Agency under the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) and the National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA), will prepare a draft Initial Study/Environmental Assessment (IS/EA), for the above referenced project.

The focus of the meeting will be to determine the "scope" of the draft IS/EA to assess the potential environmental effects of the proposed project. We are seeking input from the community regarding the relevant environmental issues and information to be addressed in the draft IS/EA.

Written comments on the scope and content of the draft IS/EA will be accepted until November 7, 2012. Please send comments to: Yolanda Rivas, District Branch Chief, Office of Environmental Analysis, California Department of Transportation, P. O. Box 23660, Oakland, CA 94623-0660, by Fax: 510-286-5600, or by E-mail: Yolanda.Rivas@dot.ca.gov

Project Overview: The purpose of the project is to address the operational deficiencies for motorists, bicyclists and pedestrians by eliminating traffic weaves and to provide adequate storage on the off-ramps. The draft IS/EA process is intended to evaluate the potential modifications to this segment of US Route 101. Probable Environmental Effects: It is anticipated that the proposed project may have the following environmental effects: Land Use, Traffic and Transportation/Pedestrian and Bicycle Facilities, Noise, Air Quality, Utilities/Emergency Services, Visual/Aesthetics, Biological Resources, Cultural Resources, Water Quality, Hazardous Materials, Hydrology/Floodplain, and Geology/Soils/Seismic/Topography.

Su Hong: work in progress?

Su Hong regulars, don't despair. Bee King, owner of the venerable Chinese restaurant at 1039 El Camino Real in Menlo Park, says the restaurant will reopen when she is able to assemble a competent staff.

Mrs. King, who has been running help wanted ads in Chinese-American newspapers, says she's having a hard time trying to find qualified people. Many former employees have relocated and it is difficult to find workers willing to commute to Menlo Park.

"If we were in San Francisco or San Jose we wouldn't have a problem, but when we say Menlo Park, they say 'Oh, it's too far away.'"

Su Hong closed June 13 after 35 years in business. At the time Ms. King said the restaurant was closing for remodeling. The kitchen has now been renovated, she says. The dining rooms will remain the same. Su Hong ToGo at 630 Menlo Ave. in Menlo Park remains open for business.

"If I want a Best Seller, I advertise in the Almanac and the Weekly." – Lyn Jason Cobb

As a Realtor serving Menlo Park, Palo Alto, Atherton, Portola Valley and Woodside, I do my utmost to provide extraordinary service to my clients. The Almanac and the Palo Alto Weekly is always where I advertise first because I like the home delivery, editorial focus, and it is a great value. I have always had great results promoting open homes in the Palo Alto Weekly and The Almanac, and I also run in special publications like Spring and Fall Real Estate, Neighborhoods and Info Menlo because of the great coverage and online presence. I am also a big believer in the Palo Alto Weekly's Open Home Guide, which is by far the most accurate and comprehensive. I've had many buyers bring in the guide to my 'Open Homes' to see what I have listed."
