Galata Bistro replaces Mataro in downtown Menlo Park

By Jane Knoerle
Almanac Lifestyles Editor

“We wanted to do what we know best,” says Ibrahim Ulas regarding the transformation of Mataro restaurant on Santa Cruz Avenue in downtown Menlo Park into Galata Bistro Mediterranean Grill. “Also, there were too many Italian restaurants in Menlo Park.”

The bistro opened with the new year. In the meantime, three Italian restaurants in Menlo Park — Gambardella’s and Cedro, along with Mataro — recently closed.

Mr. Ulas and his partner and cousin, Cumhur Ulas, are Turkish and the new menu reflects their homeland. For the diner, this means appetizers such as hummus, baba ghanoush (roasted eggplant dip), dolma (stuffed grape leaves), and kisir (Turkish tabbouleh).

The extensive lunch menu includes chicken or kofte pita sandwiches served with French fries ($7.99), wraps (chicken kebab wrapped in lavash, $8.99), salads, and entrees featuring kebabs or moussaka, rice, salad and hummus.

Vegetarian options include a veggie plate of hummus, baba ghanoush, dolma, kizartma (fried eggplant, zucchini, bell pepper, with tomato sauce, $9.99), and a falafel pita with fried garbanzo bean patties ($6.99).

Dinner is more elaborate. The menu includes chicken beyti

(ground chicken kebab wrapped in lavash with homemade tomato sauce, $14.95), coban kavurma (sauteed lamb cubes with bell peppers, tomato and fresh dill served with garlic yogurt and rice, $15.95), ali nazik (ground beef and lamb kebab over roasted eggplant, with yogurt and rice, $16.95), and charbroiled marinated lamb chops served with rice and salad ($19.95).

Charbroiled salmon, grilled trout and a seafood kebab are also available at dinner.

“Everything here is made from scratch,” says Ibrahim Ulas. That includes a tasty pistachio baklava and rice pudding.

Born in Istanbul, Mr. Ulas grew up in the restaurant business. His father has owned Sultan’s Kebab in Pleasanton for many years. Bistro Galata is the son’s first business venture featuring his native dishes.

Along with Turkish cuisine, the bistro hopes to appeal to local diners with a 4 to 6 p.m. happy hour, a kids’ menu, an extensive take-out menu, and free delivery.

The restaurant is named for Galata Tower, a medieval stone landmark in Istanbul, and features a mural of the tower painted by Mr. Ulas himself. The bistro’s decor is in sophisticated gray and black, with red accents including table linens and hanging lamps.

Galata Bistro, located at 827 Santa Cruz Ave. in Menlo Park, is open for lunch and dinner seven days a week. The phone number is 325-7900. ■

“If I want a Best Seller, I advertise in the Almanac and the Weekly.” – Lyn Jason Cobb

As a Realtor serving Menlo Park, Palo Alto, Atherton, Portola Valley and Woodside, I do my utmost to provide extraordinary service to my clients. The Almanac and the Palo Alto Weekly is always where I advertise first because I like the home delivery, editorial focus, and it is a great value. I have always had great results promoting open homes in the Palo Alto Weekly and The Almanac, and I also run in special publications like Spring and Fall Real Estate, Neighborhoods and Info Menlo because of the great coverage and online presence. I am also a big believer in the Palo Alto Weekly's Open Home Guide, which is by far the most accurate and comprehensive. I've had many buyers bring in the guide to my 'Open Homes' to see what I have listed."

“The Almanac has been a trusted part of my Real Estate marketing strategy.”

– Ed Kahl

“It is an excellent way to get information out to people in my market sphere because it is an excellent newspaper. It carries area news and features that people in Woodside, Portola Valley and Atherton want to know about. When I list exceptional homes and estates, I want to get the word, and the pictures, out. The Almanac is a great way to do that.”

It is possible that at the time of sale the opening bid may be less than the total indebtedness due. NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call (714) 480-5690 or (800) 843-0260 ext 5690 or visit this Internet Web site: <http://www.tacforeclosures.com/sales>, using the file number assigned to this case V538986 V. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. If the Trustee is unable to convey title for any reason, the successful bidder's sole and exclusive remedy shall be the return of monies paid to the Trustee and the successful bidder shall have no further recourse. If the sale is set aside for any reason, the Purchaser at the sale shall be entitled only to a return of the monies paid. The Purchaser shall have no further recourse against the Mortgagor, the Mortgagee or the Mortgagee's attorney. Date: February 19, 2013 T.D. SERVICE COMPANY as said Trustee, T.D.
