

Hooray, it's May

Woodside turns out for its traditional
May Day fete

Story by Barbara Wood | Photos by James Tensuan

Woodside's 92nd annual May Day celebration was a lot like the previous 91, and that's exactly the way the town likes it — a small-town tradition carried on in the traditional way.

Once again, the state highway that runs through the center of town was closed on the first Saturday in May for four hours so horses, kids on bikes, marching bands (Woodside High and the silly Los Trancos Woods Community marching bands to be exact), and members of the Town Council and history committee and the Friends of the Library and Friends of Huddart and Wunderlich Park, and kids from both local nursery schools could parade from Woodside Elementary School, past the church and the fire station and the library to the parking lot at Canada Corners — and back again.

Lots of candy was thrown and costumed kids cleaned up the messes the horses left behind. Eighth-graders stopped in front of master of ceremonies Bo Magnussen to perform excerpts from "The Wizard of Oz," their

High Quality, Affordable Live-In Care

Having trouble finding compassionate around-the-clock home care that fits your family's needs and budget? Call Home Care Assistance! We have been live-in specialists for Menlo Park, Atherton, Portola Valley and Woodside for 12 years! That's because we offer:

Consistent Dependable Care. We typically assign a primary caregiver 4 days a week and a secondary caregiver who covers the remaining days. (Some agencies alternate up to 4 different caregivers in one day!)

Total Peace of Mind. Rest easy knowing your loved one's needs are attended to at all times. Live-in care ensures optimal safety and is personalized to each client's individual needs.

Professional Oversight. Live-in caregivers are managed by a team of client care managers to make sure our clients' experiences are always positive. You don't just hire a caregiver, you hire our full team of seasoned care professionals.

Reasonable Rates. Home Care Assistance hires and trains only the most qualified caregivers, but our live-in rates are the most competitive in the industry. Call to learn more!

operetta this year. Dressed-up trucks advertised the “Home-town Hero” theme of this year’s fundraising auction for the school and urged a yes vote on the school bond measure on the June ballot.

Sheriff’s deputies were there — on bicycles, motorcycles and in patrol cars and golf carts — not so much to nab wrongdoers as to make sure no one was stepped on by a horse, and maybe to redirect the confused bicyclists who instead of breezing through town as usual found themselves in the middle of a parade.

As usual, a court of kindergartners chosen at random held a place of honor in the back of an antique fire truck. Elianne Frenkel-Popell, who grew up in Woodside and whose children go to the school, was the grand marshal.

Members of the class of 1964 celebrated 50 years since their graduation from eighth-grade by marching, too, perhaps just a bit more slowly than the last time they’d done it.

After the parade, third-graders did the traditional May Pole dance in the school’s outdoor amphitheater, wearing pastel costumes passed on from one year to the next.

Citizen of the year

Kerri Stenson, one of the parade co-chairs, was surprised when the time came to announce the annual Citizen of the Year and it turned out to be her.

Ms. Stenson was honored for a long list of accomplishments at the school, including many leadership roles in the PTA. She established a teacher grant program and a student photo program that raises money for the grant program. She has worked on the school auction, the bond measure campaign, and the strategic plan committee, and she has co-chaired the May Day parade for years.

Ms. Stenson is the founder of Edible Silicon Valley magazine and has worked to bring the farmers’ market to Woodside. She grows produce on her property for the Woodside Bakery.

Left: Soap box derby racers make their way down Woodside Road during the May Day Parade. Below: Victor Aenlle with the Mounted Patrol of San Mateo County waits for the parade to begin.

“She truly cares deeply, not only for our school, but for the community as a whole,” her nomination said.

The day started with a fun run and walk, in which everyone from dogs to kids in double strollers participated, and a pancake breakfast cooked by the Rotary Club. The day ended with a barbecue and carnival on the school grounds.

Finally, the road was reopened to motorists driving to the coast and bicyclists heading for a scenic ride, and the 92nd May Day in Woodside was over. ■

Georgian Manor in Woodside Heights

228 Eleanor Drive WOODSIDE

This stately three-level home is both beautiful and impressive, offering over 4,123 sq. ft. (per appraiser) of living space with 4 bedrooms and 3.5 baths. Period architecture will delight history enthusiasts, and the large, lush lot of 1.1 acres (per county) provides privacy and expanses of land. The main level contains the common rooms including formal living, dining, and library. A great room ensemble of kitchen, family room, and breakfast room are awash in light thanks to many windows. The flexible layout offers bedrooms on the upper and lower levels. The master suite is upstairs along with two other bedrooms that share a den and hallway bathroom. One bedroom, a full bath, and a home office are downstairs. Many balconies and terraces take advantage of the natural surroundings as well as far-reaching views of the hillside. Other highlights include oak hardwood flooring, many French doors, and crown molding. This Woodside Heights neighborhood is superb, tucked into the hills, yet just moments from Woodside Road, the Menlo Circus Club, and the highly desired Las Lomas school district. Las Lomas Elementary (API 943), La Entrada Middle School (API 964), and Woodside High School. Both Wunderlich and Huddart Parks are nearby, offering horseback riding, biking, and hiking trails.

500 Help Wanted

Multimedia Sales Representatives

Embarcadero Media is headquartered in Palo Alto and operates diverse media enterprises, including the region's most respected and award-winning community newspapers and specialty publications, websites and e-mail marketing products.

Locally-owned and independent for 34 years, we publish the Palo Alto Weekly, Mountain View Voice and Almanac on the Peninsula and the Pleasanton Weekly. In each of these communities our papers are the dominant, best-read and most respected among its various competitors. We also operate extremely popular interactive community news and information websites in all of our cities, plus unique online-only operations in Danville and San Ramon. Our flagship website, Palo Alto Online (http://paloaltoonline.com), attracts more than 150,000 unique visitors and 600,000 page views a month.

As the first newspaper in the United States to publish on the web back in 1994, the Palo Alto Weekly is recognized throughout the state and nation as a leader in transforming from a print-only news organization to an innovative multimedia company offering advertisers and readers new and effective products. In 2013, the Weekly was judged the best large weekly newspaper in the state by the California Newspaper Publishers Association. Its web operation, Palo Alto Online, was judged the best newspaper website in California.

The Palo Alto Weekly and Embarcadero Media are seeking smart, articulate and dedicated experienced and entry-level sales professionals who are looking for a fast-paced and dynamic work environment of people committed to producing outstanding journalism and effective marketing for local businesses.

As a Multimedia Account Executive, you will contact and work with local businesses to expand their brand identity and support their future success using marketing and advertising

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE FOR CHANGE OF NAME SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA FOR THE COUNTY OF SAN MATEO
Case No.: CIV527294
TO ALL INTERESTED PERSONS:
Petitioner: MARK DAVID O'HARA filed a petition with this court for a decree changing names as follows: MARK DAVID O'HARA to MARK DAVID O'HARA.
THE COURT ORDERS that all persons interested in this matter appear before this court at the hearing indicated below to show cause, if any, why the petition for change of name should not be granted. Any person objecting to the name changes described above must file a written objection that includes the reasons for the objection at least two court days before the matter is scheduled to be heard and must appear at the hearing to show cause why the petition should not be granted. If no written objection is timely filed, the court may grant the petition without a hearing.
NOTICE OF HEARING: May 21, 2014 at 9:00 a.m., Dept.: PJ, Room: 2J of the Superior Court of California, County of San Mateo, located at 400 County Center, Redwood City, CA 94063. A copy of this ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE shall be published at least once each week for four successive weeks prior to the date set for hearing on the petition in the following newspaper of general circulation, printed in this county: THE ALMANAC
Date: March 6, 2014
/s/ Robert D. Foiles
JUDGE OF THE SUPERIOR COURT
(ALM Apr. 23, 30, May 7, 14, 2014)

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF:
TREVOR E. WHITE, also known as TREVOR ELLIOTT WHITE, and TREVOR WHITE
Case No.: 124394
To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of TREVOR E. WHITE, also known as TREVOR ELLIOTT WHITE, and TREVOR WHITE.
A Petition for Probate has been filed by: PHILLIP TYLER WHITE in the Superior Court of California, County of SAN MATEO.

The Petition for Probate requests that: PHILLIP TYLER WHITE be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.
The petition requests the decedent's will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.
The petition requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.
A HEARING on the petition will be held on May 30, 2014 at 9:00 a.m. in Dept.: 28 of the Superior Court of California, County of San Mateo, located at 400 County Center, Redwood City, CA 94063.

If you object to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney. If you are a creditor or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58 (b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.
You may examine the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.
